Science, Cognition and Technology Ph. D. Programme and CIRESS
University of Bologna

CIS, University of Bologna, April 8, 2011

10:00 to 16:00

First Morning Session:

10:00- 10:10

Giuliano Pancaldi and Roberto Scazzieri: Introductory Remarks

10:10-10:30

Jan Cherlet : Climate Science at Work: The Structures of Knowledge
Production and Legitimization

10:30-10:50

Rupsha Banerjee: Linking Agricultural Research with Local Systems of Innovation: Insights from Farmers' Perceptions and Adaptation to Climate Variability

Discussants: Giuliano Pancaldi and Andrea Zucchelli

10:50-11:10

General Discussion: 11:10-11:40

Second Morning Session:

Matteo Serafini: Technological Innovation in Emilia Romagna: Knowledge,
Practice, Strategies

11:40-12:00

Roberto Palazzetti: New Perspectives on Nanotechnology: Nanofibers by Electrospinning

12:00-12:20

Discussants: Alessandro Freddi, Giuliano Pancaldi

12:20-12:40

General Discussion:

12:40-13:10

Lunch break

13:10-14:10

Afternoon Session:

Antonio Andreoni: Structural Learning: Complementarities, Bottlenecks and Cognitive Dynamics
14:10-14:30

Ivano Cardinale: Objective structures, cognitive structures and pre-reflexive behaviour: The case of user innovation
14.30-14.50

Giorgio Olmi: Mathematical Modelling of Empirical Data: from Data Regularization to Safety Previsions
14:50-15:10

Discussants: Alessandro Freddi, Roberto Scazzieri, Andrea Zucchelli
15:10-15:30

General discussion
15:30- 16:00
