

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

We're ready to begin!

International Programs are glad to welcome you at the School of Economics in Bologna

The Welcome Week is designed to show you what UNIBO is all about. While discovering your new city, you will have the opportunity to meet new people and attend events created for you!

During the Welcome Week you will have orientation meetings and Kick-off meetings for each Program. You will meet your new colleagues, professors, tutors and coordinators; you will get an insight into the learning activities, courses and useful tips and you will discover all the opportunities offered at the School.

September 3-17, 2012
