

UNIBO MAPATHON

OpenStreetMap 2021

OpenStreetMap

OpenStreetMap (OSM) is a free map of the entire world that is constantly created and edited by millions of volunteers around the world through a process of collaborative mapping (crowdmapping) that can help providing and updating maps for areas of the world that do not have one; their availability is crucial to support emergency operations in case of disasters.

In the frame of the OpenStreetMap Geography Awareness Week 2021, the area of Geomatics at DICAM Dept. will host an online and in presence Mapathon event.

NOVEMBER 15TH 2021, H 16:00

ON LINE event @MICROSOFT TEAMS

IN PRESENCE @Bologna, viale del Risorgimento 2
