C³ KICK-OFF MEETING

AULA O "CIAMICIAN" - POLO NAVILE U.E. 4
VIA PIERO GOBETTI, 85 - BOLOGNA

The Center for Chemical Catalysis "C³" has been founded in 2021 by scientists of Chemistry Department "Giacomo Ciamician" and Industrial Chemistry Department "Toso Montanari" of Alma Mater Studiorum - Università of Bologna.

The C³ Kick off meeting will be the launch event of the Center, aiming to create an informal and fruitful atmosphere for young researchers to share their latest findings with eminent scientists of the production world.

Invited speakers

Dr. Paolo Pollesel - Dr. Carlo Perego
Renewable Energy & Environmental R&D, Eni S.p.A.
"Development of catalytic technologies in Eni"

Dr. Jacopo Roletto
Procos S.p.A. (CBC Group)
"API manufacturing: scale up of hydrogenation reactions through a multidisciplinary approach"

Oral communications by junior researchers member of C³ will complete the scientific programme of the one-day meeting.
