

Saturday, October 29, 2022

Aula 3 Teaching Hub, via F. Corridoni 20

h. 9:00-11:15 Education and Women's Rights

Chair: prof. Giorgia Pavani (Unibo)

Mr. Navid Rasa, LLM in Business and Administration, University of Bologna

"Investing on the Future of Afghanistan through Youth's Education"

(in Italian from Forlì)

Ms. Shakofa Barakzi, Researcher at the University of Turin

"The Future of Afghanistan's Educational Policy in the Absence of a Constitution"

(in English from Turin)

Ms. Batool Haidary, PhD in Clinical Psychology, Faculty member of the Kabul University, and Women Rights Activist

"Women in the Constitution of Afghanistan"

(in Farsi from Rome)

Ms. Fereshta Rahimi Neda, former Career Afghan Diplomat, Human Rights Activist, and Cultural Officer at the Red Cross

"Constitutional Signs of Discrimination, it's Impacts on the Implementation and Promotion of Law Abiding Culture"

(in Farsi from Germany)

h. 11:15-11.30 Coffee Break

h. 11.30-12.30 Final Keynote Speaker: Prof. Massimo Papa, University of Roma Tor Vergata

Concluding Remarks

(in English from Rome)

h. 12.30-13:00 Closing and Announcement of the final proposals by prof. Silvia Bagni and H.E. Khaled A. Zekriya

Hybrid (online and in presence) conference between the Embassy and Mission of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan in Rome and the University of Bologna, Campus of Forlì

The working language will be English.
A simultaneous translation service will be present on the zoom channel from Farsi to Italian and from Italian to English

Link to the event on Zoom:

Con il patrocinio del Comune di Forlì – Assessorato promozione settore culturale e museale; Università; Politiche internazionali; Progetti europei; Innovazione tecnologica

The Future of Afghanistan: A Comparative Constitutional Analysis

Painting by Behrang

October 28-29, 2022

Friday, October 28, 2022

h. 13:00-15:00 Lunch

Aula 2.1, Padiglione Morgagni - via G. della Torre 1

h. 10:00 Institutional Opening

Chair: Prof. Silvia Bagni (Unibo)

prof. Silvia Bianconcini, UNA Europa Coordinator (Unibo); prof. Filippo Andreatta, Director of the Department of Political and Social Sciences (Unibo); prof. Marco Balboni, UOS responsible, campus of Forlì (Unibo); Valerio Melandri, Councillor for University and International Policies, Comune di Forlì; H.E. Khaled A. Zekriya, Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan

h. 10.30: Prof. Deborah Scolart,
University of Roma Tor Vergata

“Custom, religion, law. Keys to understand Afghanistan”
(in English from Forlì)

h. 11.15 -11.30 Coffee Break

h. 11.30-13.00 Historical and Comparative Perspectives
Chair: Prof. Francesca Biancani (Unibo)

Mr. Dehzad, Professor of Law

“A Long Way Toward the Rule of Law, Division of Power, Responsibilities of the Government and of the Citizenry in a Social Contract”
(in Farsi from Netherland)

Mr. Vincenzo Grasso, former Herat PRT Commander “Herat PRT Experience: An Example of Best Practice for the Future of Afghanistan” (in English from Forlì)

Filippo Miraglia, Responsible for Immigration ARCI
*“Legal and safe ways for Afghan refugees:
the experience of humanitarian corridors”*
(in Italian from Forlì)

Aula 6 Teaching Hub, via F. Corridoni 20

15:00-15:30 Institutional Embassy Opening

H.E. Ambassador Khaled A. Zekriya

(in English from the Embassy in Rome)

Mr. Diego Massimiliano De Giorgi, Honorary Consul of Fiji

“The Afghan and Italian Constitutions: A Comparative Reflection and Evaluation”

(in Italian from the Embassy in Rome)

h. 15:30-17:15 Jurisdictional and Constitutional Guarantees

Chair: Prof. Patrizia Pederzoli (Unibo)

Mr. Abdul Razaq Esmaily, member of the Human Rights

Committee, and member of the Supreme Council of National Resistance to Save Afghanistan

“Decentralized Government and Prime Ministerial-Parliamentary and MDR Electoral System”

(in Farsi from the Embassy in Rome)

Mr. Ainuddin Bahadri, Head of the Afghanistan Lawyers'
Union, and Head of the Commission on Access to Information

“Concentration of Power in the Presidential Body and of the Vice Presidents”

(in English from London, UK)

Mr. Antonio Capuano, Lawyer and Expert of International Law

“The Future Constitution of Afghanistan-A Need for Separation and Balance of Powers”

(in Italian from the Embassy in Rome)

Final remarks: Mohammad Mehdi

Mr. Mohammad Taqi Manaqebi, former expert member of the National Committee for Revising Curriculum and Syllabuses of Law and Sharia Faculties of Afghanistan for the Ministry of Higher Education of IRoA, former member and Master Trainer of Afghanistan Peace and Justice Organization (APJO), currently Post-Doctorate Researcher at Parma University

“The Basis of Government Legitimacy in the Constitution of Afghanistan”

(in English from Parma)

Final Remarks: Prof. Marco Balboni (Unibo)

h. 17:15-17:30 Coffee Break

Aula 6 Teaching Hub, via F. Corridoni 20

h. 17:30-19:00 State Powers

Chair: Prof. Sabrina Ragone (Unibo)

Mr. Abdul Tawab Danish, Senior Member of the Afghanistan Lawyers' Union, Former Assistant Professor in Faculty of Law at Parwan University, and Visiting Researcher at Cornell University

“Presidential Concentration of Power in the Constitution”
(in English from New York, USA)

Mr. Mir Ahmad Joyenda, former Afghan Diplomat, current Chairman of Foundation for Culture and Civil Society (FCCS), and MP

“The Constitutional Shortcomings in Legislative Branch”
(in English from the Embassy in Rome)

Mr. Qorbanali Esmaily, Intercultural Mediator and current advisor at the Embassy and Mission of IRoA in Rome

“The Role of Loya Jirga in the Future Constitution of Afghanistan”

(in Italian from the Embassy in Rome)

Mr. Abdullah Shafaei, Commissioner of the Independent Commission for Monitoring the Implementation of the Constitution, and currently a researcher at the University of Turin in the field of Constitutional Law and Family Law “Centralism in the Constitution of Afghanistan”
(in English from the Embassy in Rome)

Final remarks: prof. Arrigo Pallotti (Unibo)