

SHARED PERSPECTIVES 2023

HOW TO MAKE THE GREEN TRANSITION HAPPEN?

DAY 1: Friday 6th October

- 14:15 Introduction
Niko Jaakkola (Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna)
Riccardo Rovelli (Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna)
- 14:30 Keynote
Daniele Franco (Former Italian Minister of Economy and Finance)
Financial and environmental sustainability: the value of the future
Moderator: Riccardo Rovelli (Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna)
Discussion:
Selma Mahfouz (Inspector General of Finances, French Finance Ministry)
Karen Pittel (Director of Center for Energy, Climate and Resources, ifo Institute)
- 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:30 Panel 1 – Can the green transition be pro-competitive and market-friendly?
Moderator: Lorenzo Forni (Università di Padova; Head of Prometeia Associazione Think Tank)
Suzana Carp (Leader, Cleantech for Europe's Policy Team)
EU Policies towards Net Zero: Are we getting them right?
Antoine Dechezleprêtre (Senior Economist, Productivity Innovation and Entrepreneurship Division, OECD)
Green industrial policies
Simone Gasperin (Senior Policy Advisor Industria, ECCO Climate)
The NECP: a pragmatic policy approach to transform the Italian productive ecosystem
Andrea Tilche (Università di Bologna; former Head of Unit, DG Research, European Commission)
The green transition of mobility: Italian errors, virtuous policies and political risks
- 18:15 Break
- 18:30 Panel 2 – How can the costs of the green transition be made politically and socially acceptable?
Moderator: Rick van der Ploeg (University of Oxford)
Leonardo Becchetti (University of Rome Tor Vergata)
Strategies to make ecological transition socially and politically acceptable
Selma Mahfouz (Inspector General of Finances, French Finance Ministry)
Transition costs and funding: an assessment for France
Mar Reguant (ICREA-IAE and Northwestern University)
Splitting the pie of renewable rents
Massimo Tavoni (Politecnico di Milano and Director, EIEE)
Distributional implications of avoided climate risks and revenue recycling
- 20:00 Workshop dinner
(Dinner sponsored by Prometeia Associazione Think Tank)

DAY 2: Saturday 7th October

- 8:30 Panel 3 – Will sustainability deter or spur economic growth?
Moderator: TBA
Karen Pittel (Director of Center for Energy, Climate and Resources, ifo Institute)
Can we sensibly assess the growth impacts of sustainability? (PROVISIONAL)
Ottavio Ricchi (Chief Economist, Italian Treasury)
How can the Italian PNRR steer the green transition towards sustainable growth? (PROVISIONAL)
Alessio Terzi (Economist, DG ECFIN, European Commission; Sciences Po, Paris)
The Green Industrial Revolution: lessons from the past
- 10:30 Coffee break
- 11:00 Panel 4 – Are carbon pricing and emissions trading market-friendly and growth-effective?
Moderator: TBA
Simone Borghesi (Università di Siena, EUI and EAERE)
The social impact of emissions trading systems
Stefano De Clara (Head of Secretariat, ICAP)
Acceptability of ETS and carbon pricing, and use of related revenues (PROVISIONAL)
Matteo Mura (Dept. of Management, Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna)
Industrial sustainability transition pathways in Europe: Implications for EU carbon policies
Jan Nill (Policy Coordinator EU Emissions Trading System, DG CLIMA, European Commission)
The indispensable role of carbon pricing for a green transition – lessons from EU experiences
- 13:00 Lunch break
- 14:30 Keynote
Rick van der Ploeg (Professor, University of Oxford)
Transformative Policies for the Green Transition: Affordable and Achievable
Moderator: Niko Jaakkola (Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna)
Discussion: Lorenzo Forni (Università di Padova; Head of Prometeia Associazione Think Tank)
- 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:15 Panel 5 – Will the green transition foster global cooperation or division?
Moderator: TBA
Kalypto Nikolaidis (Chair in Global Affairs, EUI)
Europe as a Laboratory for Planetary Politics?
Gianmarco Ottaviano (Bocconi University)
The EU Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism between ambition and delusion
Giorgio Presidente (Research Fellow, Institute for European Policymaking, Bocconi University)
The EU and the US Inflation Reduction Act, No Rose Without Thorns
- 18:15 End of workshop
- 19:30 Farewell dinner
(Dinner sponsored by EconPol Europe – CESifo's economic policy platform)

Supported by:

