h. 17.30 - 17.45 Concluding remarks

Scientific collaboration among scholars from different parts of the world and with diverse backgrounds is of fundamental importance for the development of the countries involved and for the institutions to which these researchers are affiliated.

This type of synergy represents a powerful lever for cultural growth, technological innovation and socio-economic progress, and becomes particularly important during times of crisis.

The initiative, organised by the University of Bologna and Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung, aims to showcase the research conducted by scholars from Ukraine who are currently studying and researching in Italy and to further foster interaction with and between them.
